

AN OPEN MEETING

For parents of children with neuroblastoma

SATURDAY 23 JULY 2011 IN CENTRAL LONDON

A meeting to give UK families an opportunity to get together and share their experiences.

Donna Ludwinski of the neuroblastoma news service NB Globe (www.nbglobe.com) will also be presenting.

NB Globe is written for parents of children with neuroblastoma. It reports on published studies, meetings, and clinical trials enrolling patients. Donna will present her perspective on three decades of phase III neuroblastoma frontline treatment trials and current relapse therapies and research in Europe and US.

Central London from 11am-2pm, Saturday 23rd July
